Deacon José Zamora, Pastoral Leader

Especially during Ordinary Time, the first reading is selected to prepare us for the passage we will hear in the Gospel. Today's first reading must have been easy to choose, for it is referenced in the Gospel. There Jesus explains that it was God, not Moses, who provided the bread that sustained the Chosen People. It is God who has sent bread again, in the form of the Son, who is the Bread of Life. God is the ultimate source of our nourishment on our journeys, whether to the promised land of Israel or to eternal life in the kingdom of God.

The Chosen People had just complained to Moses and Aaron about their hunger, recalling their fill of bread in Egypt. Yet, they failed to recognize bread under their feet the next morning. "What is this?" they asked Moses. Moses identifies it as bread from God, bread that will save them in the desert. It is also, as we find out later, a foreshadowing of an even greater source of life sent down from heaven: Jesus Christ, the Bread of Life, who, similarly, is also unrecognized or misunderstood by the crowd. Do we recognize the Bread of Life when he comes to us today and every day? Or are we invariably asking, "What is this?"

John sets up this passage of his Gospel by saying that after eating their fill of the miraculous feast Jesus provided, the crowd of people were so intent on pursuing him that they sailed across the Sea of Galilee to the village of Capernaum. They had seen at least one of the signs that he had performed and been fed as well, so this made sense. But Jesus immediately redirects their thinking: "Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life". As he had earlier invited the woman at the well to accept the living water only he could provide, Jesus now invites the crowd to accept the bread of life he offers. Both the water from the well and the barley loaves can nourish us for only a short time; Jesus can satisfy our hunger and thirst for eternity. What have I grumbled about this week on my journey through life? How can the Bread of Life sustain me through a difficulty or hardship like that?

The Basilica and National Shrine of Our Lady of Consolation in Carey invites area singers to join the 2024 Assumption Choir. This choir, along with a brass quintet, will lead the music for the Vigil Mass of the Assumption, in the Shrine Park, on Wednesday, August 14, 2024 at 9:30pm. This unique experience gives singers, ranging from amateur to professional, the opportunity to sing a wide variety of music with a short-term commitment. Rehearsals will be held from 4:00–5:30pm in the Original Shrine Church (next to the Gift Shop) on Sundays: July 28, August 4, and August 11. As the Bishops of Ohio have promoted a statewide pilgrimage to the Shrine, this year's Mass is expected to have 15,000 or more in attendance. Please direct any questions to the basilica's Director of Music Ministries, Mr. Anthony Gallina, at music@olcshrine.com or 419-396-7107, ext. 104.
